ABOUT ME

Hi there, I am Rebecca!

I am a social media content creator who is passionate about photography and travel, both across the globe and within my own city, London.

My overall goal is to inspire people to seek more within their own lives, and explore the world around them. I offer travel, photography and editing tips, to enable people to seek their own adventures through video and photography.

LOCAL GOOGLE GUIDE

Hi there, I am Rebecca!

Whilst I'm passionate about travel content creation, I am also passionate about giving back to the community by contributing to the Google Maps network.

I love to leave reviews and share photos of all the fun things I get up to, and all the delicious foods I eat.

Being a Local Google Guide is one of my favourite things about Google Maps.
